Spartherm Black Edition

Customised design in industrial style

Black is great for any occasion: These special models of the Black Edition will inspire you with their striking, classy look. All components have black varnish, turning these stoves into an impressive display.

Spartherm Black Edition – Designed for people with sophisticated aesthetic demands. Combine minimalist shapes with powerful black hues to make your home truly unforgettable. A crackling fire in the stove will perfect this atmospheric ambiance.

Clear edges in a new look.

The new Spartherm Piko S steel - Black Edition is a true highlight. It combines a classic straight-lined design in black varnish with modern contours. In design-oriented spaces its elegantly staged fire creates the perfect ambiance for sophisticated tastes.
